

ACADEMIC SENATE
of
THE CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY

AS-2544-03/Long Beach
May 10-11, 2001

Resolution in Honor of Senator Patricia Rozée

- WHEREAS, Patricia Rozée has served as the duly elected representative of California State University, Long Beach for two terms; and
- WHEREAS, Patricia Rozée was overwhelmingly re-elected to the Academic Senate of the California State University (partly because people were afraid to run against her); and
- WHEREAS, Patricia Rozée has become increasingly involved in administering CSULB's very successful service learning program; and
- WHEREAS, Patricia Rozée has an irrational and inexplicable need to sleep and must thus give up some of her very worthwhile activities; and
- WHEREAS, Patricia Rozée has regretfully resigned from the Academic Senate CSU; and
- WHEREAS, Patricia Rozee has helped to educate and inform the Senate on important issues affecting service learning; and
- WHEREAS, Patricia Rozee has been a valued contributor to the Academic Affairs Committee for the past three years; and
- WHEREAS, Patricia Rozée's extreme candor has been either refreshing or distressing depending upon the sensitivity and sensibility of the recipients of her remarks; and
- WHEREAS, Patricia Rozée has never failed to express her opinions with the utmost honesty and integrity; and
- WHEREAS, Openness and directness are precious commodities in elected bodies like the Senate; therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That Patricia Rozée will be sorely missed by everyone who values honesty, integrity, candor and directness; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate CSU express its thanks to Patricia Rozée for her years of distinguished service.

APPROVED BY ACCLAMATION – May 10-11, 2001
