BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Conferral of the Title President Emeritus Upon Robert Maxson

Presentation By

Charles B. Reed
Chancellor

Summary

It is recommended that departing President Robert Maxson be named President Emeritus.

The following commendation is recommended for approval:

WHEREAS, Robert C. Maxson was appointed as President of California State University, Long Beach in 1994, and has for more than a decade capably and actively served in that crucial position, and

WHEREAS, He has worked tirelessly to transform the campus into a “university of choice,” most notably by launching the model President’s Scholar Program, which has drawn more than 800 high school valedictorians and National Merit Scholar students while helping to raise the intellectual climate and national reputation of the campus; and

WHEREAS, He has by his bold leadership and energetic participation in the life of the campus earned the regard of countless students, faculty and staff, which has resulted in his being repeatedly named President of the Year by CSU’s students as well as earning the national Council for Advancement and Support of Education, District VII’s 2000 Chief Executive Award; and

WHEREAS, He has continued to advance the university, working with community schools in a comprehensive program to better prepare local students for the university, launching productive partnerships with community businesses and service organizations, and helping to raise more than $300 million to enrich the academic programs of the university; and

WHEREAS, It is altogether fitting that the California State University recognize those individuals who have made distinguished contributions to higher education and to the state of California; now, therefore, be it
RESOLVED. By the Board of Trustees of the California State University that this Board honor President Robert C. Maxson for his outstanding contributions to the California State University and confer on him the title of President Emeritus with all the rights and privileges pertaining thereto.
