Design-Build and CM at Risk: Process Review

Thursday, August 2, 2007, 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
CSU East Bay/Concord Campus, Library 231

Thursday, August 9, 2007, 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
CSU Los Angeles, Salazar Hall C98

This program is designed for campus planning and project management staff.

This session will address these two procurement methods from the following perspectives: CSU authority, and problems and benefits of using these methods as alternative project methods. A panel of presenters will issue and review the model and guidelines for each contracting method, and share past experiences and lessons learned.

The CSU Facilities Management Institute (FMI) is the CSU's administrative framework for its planning, design and construction, and plant operations training program. The office of Capital Planning, Design and Construction manages the program. The CSU FMI is only available to CSU personnel and related auxiliary staff as its training programs address business practices that are specific to the CSU.
