The New Codes are Here! The New Codes are Here!

Wednesday, July 18, 2007, 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
San Francisco State University, Corporation Yard TR 101

Wednesday, July 25, 2007, 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
Chancellor's Office, Wallace Room

This session is intended for campus planners, project managers, and campus architects.

This program focuses on helping users that are familiar with the 2001 California Building Code (1997 UBC with California Amendments) adapt to the 2006 California Building Code (2006 International Building Code [IBC] with California Amendments). The session will detail the important differences between the two codes and cover concepts that are not in the 1997 UBC. In an effort to further aid users, the training will provide explanations as to why the codes differ, with further explanation as to the location of code requirements in the UBC and IBC that are the same, but located in different sections.

PRESENTED BY

International Building Code Representatives
Instructor to be determined.

Capital Planning, Design and Construction, Office of the Chancellor
Moderators: Tom Kennedy, Chief of Architecture & Engineering
Warren Jacobs, University Architect

The CSU Facilities Management Institute (FMI) is the CSU's administrative framework for its planning, design and construction, and plant operations training program. The office of Capital Planning, Design and Construction manages the program. The CSU FMI is only available to CSU personnel and related auxiliary staff as its training programs address business practices that are specific to the CSU.
