Complaint of Retaliation for Having Made a Protected Disclosure Under the California Whistleblower Protection Act

Section 8547.12 of the Government Code forbids retaliation by any employee of the California State University against employees, former employees or applicants for employment for having made protected disclosures under that statute. Allegations of such retaliation may be filed with the employee's manager or supervisor, or with the campus MPP employee responsible for administering Executive Order 1058 or designated by the President or the Chancellor to handle a particular complaint.

Please provide all requested information. Forms that do not include any required information will be rejected. Use additional sheets of paper if necessary and write your name and the date at the top of each page.
