- Transition from CELDT to English Language Proficiency Assessment for California (ELPAC)
We are in the midst of our journey towards implementation of college and career-ready standards.

- California adopts Common Core State Standards authorized through SB15X legislation.
- CDE releases Common Core implementation plan.
- "Transitioning to a New Assessment System" report released by Supt. Torlakson.
- Smarter Balanced launched, Common Core State Standards measured and modeled in every California classroom.

- 2001: CA develops rigorous set of standards.
- 2010: California joins Smarter Balanced as a governing State.
- 2011: Supt. Torlakson begins outreach to develop recommendations for new assessment system (required by AB250 March 2012).
- 2012: Pilot test Smarter Balanced summative.
- 2013: Field test Smarter Balanced summative.
- 2015: Standards of performance established to signal college and career readiness.

California getting ready for a next generation, world-class assessment system:
- Recommending bridge materials
- Developing new curriculum frameworks
- Building new professional development modules
- Adopting new instructional materials
- Field testing the Smarter Balanced tests in all eligible grades.

A circle has its center at (6, 7) and goes through the point (1, 4). A second circle is tangent to the first circle at the point (1, 4) and has the same area. What are the coordinates for the center of the second circle? Show your work or explain how you found your answer.
Grandma Ruth

Last night I learned that my grandma was named after Babe Ruth, the greatest baseball player of all time. I learned this six hours too late.

Yesterday I wanted to work on throwing a baseball. I needed a baseball, since my brother wouldn't let me borrow his. Unfortunately, I forgot where one was.

I tiptoed into my grandma's bedroom. Sunlight from the late afternoon sun filtered in through the leaves of the dogwood tree outside the open window. I moved slowly through my favorite room in the house, which belonged to my favorite person in the world, my grandma.

I reached into the back of her closet and pulled out a shoebox full of old baseballs wrapped in tissue paper. I shoved my hand in and grabbed the first one I touched. I threw off the paper and ran out into the yard with our dog, Bowie, who would always play a game of catch with me.

We had a spectacular game of catch. By the end of our session I was throwing straight as an arrow and Bowie was bringing it back as fast as he could. It was perfect.

I went back into my grandma's room and wrapped the ball back up in paper, just like I'd found it. Except now it looked dirty and used, like a good baseball should.

At dinner, though, I heard the story.

"Have I ever told you that I'm named after the greatest baseball player who ever lived?" Grandma asked suddenly.

James and I shook our heads. We leaned forward to listen. It isn't often we hear new stories from her.

My grandmother stood up and walked into her bathroom. She came back with the shoebox in her hands. She sat down and started her story.

"So, your great-grandfather was the catcher for the Detroit Tigers back in the 1950s. His favorite player was Ty Cobb, the best player the Tigers have ever had. When Ty found out that your great-grandparents were going to have a baby, he Read this part of the text again.

"It turns out my mother loved the name Ruth. That's how I got my name and how my father got these. He let Ty Cobb name me after Bebe Ruth."

"I tried to swallow but couldn't. I hoped that she wasn't going to say what I thought she was going to say. Then she said it.

"This shoebox are the ten baseballs Ty Cobb gave my father. They are signed by some of the most famous ballplayers in history, including one that has one single signature on it. Bebe Ruth's."

"My grandma pulled the ball out, unwrapped it, and held it out for us to see. The ball was scarred almost beyond recognition. It had dog bite marks, dirt scuffs, and fraying seams. Right in the middle was a big signature in black ink that I had somehow overlooked. It was smudged now and faded, but it still clearly said "Babe Ruth."

But my grandma just looked at the ball and smiled briefly. She said softly, "Even though it doesn't look like much, this ball has brought our family a lot of joy in its time. I remember when I was your age, Naomi, I almost rubbed the signature right off from tossing it up and down all the time. You see, I've always felt that a baseball should be used for a lot more than looking. My dad, your great-grandfather, used to say the same thing."
