"The Role of Multicultural Texts in Differentiated Teaching and Learning"

How can we contribute to the success of all students, including English language learners, students with disabilities, struggling readers, and students who are gifted and talented?

- Morning concurrent sessions by CSU faculty will focus on ideas, strategies, and approaches for differentiating instruction
- Afternoon concurrent sessions will focus on CSU-wide initiatives and provide participants an opportunity to provide feedback and get involved

CAR will pay for travel and registration for up to 10 people per campus, including both faculty and K-12 partners. Please contact your CAR representative for information and registration.

Registration due by OCTOBER 17, 2006
