Subject: Delegation of Authority - Acceptance of Conditional Gifts of Student Financial Aid
Funds - Executive Order No. 170

I am transmitting to you a copy of Executive Order No. 170, which delegates authority to each President to accept conditional gifts of funds to be used for student financial aid purposes.

A review of Section 42300 of Title 5 of the California Administrative Code by the Office of General Counsel indicated that only unconditional gifts are automatically accepted by the Trustees. Since funds to be used for scholarships and loans are by their very nature conditional, this authorization will permit each President to accept such funds on behalf of the Trustees and the Chancellor.

The Executive Order permits a President to accept funds for scholarship or other student financial aid purposes, and to administer these funds in accordance with any permissible conditions of the gift. Presidents are cautioned, however, that occasionally scholarship or financial aid gifts are made subject to conditions which are legally prohibited. The most frequent example is the gift restricted to students of a stated sex or racial or ethnic origin, or who are the adherents of a particular religion. Whenever you have any questions concerning the legality of a gift, the Chancellor's Office of General Counsel should be consulted before the gift is accepted.
