Executive Vice Chancellor
SUBJECT: Modification to Authorization for Reciprocal
International Student Exchange Programs -
Executive Order No. 199

Attached is Executive Order No. 199, which modifies Executive Order No. 153. The enclosed order, which implements Education Code Sections 23754(b) and Chapter III, Section 6(b) of the Standing Orders, authorizes a tuition waiver for foreign students attending a California State University and Colleges campus pursuant to an established "sister city" program, where comparable expenses are defrayed for an equivalent number of students from the particular California State University and Colleges campus by or on behalf of the foreign institution. Except as modified by this Executive Order, the provisions for Reciprocal International Student Exchange Programs, established by Executive Order 153, remain in effect.

Modification to Authorization for Reciprocal International Student
Exchange Programs
Executive Order No. 199

This Executive Order is issued pursuant to Chapter III, Section 6(b) of the Standing Orders of the Board of Trustees of The California State University and Colleges and is effective immediately.

Paragraphs A and B of Executive Order 153, Reciprocal International Student Exchange Programs, are modified to read as follows:

- A. Agreements must provide for the attendance of a student from The California State University and Colleges at a foreign institution of higher education, or participation of the student in a program pursuant to Paragraph B(2), in exchange for each international student permitted to attend The California State University and Colleges.
- B. The agreement must provide either: (1) that a tuition waiver for the international student will be granted only if a like amount of tuition is waived for The California State University and Colleges student attending the foreign institution; or (2) that comparable expenses are met or waived by or on behalf of the foreign entity pursuant to a "sister city" program between the city at which the foreign entity is located and a California city which includes a program of student exchange between the foreign entity and the campus of The California State University and Colleges.
