Executive Order No.: 412
Title: 1982/83 Capital Outlay Freeze
Effective Date: January 28, 1983
Supersedes: No Prior Executive Order

In response to the current fiscal crisis facing the State, the Governor has issued Executive Order D-3-83. A copy of that order is attached. That order directs the State Public Works Board to defer processing most capital outlay projects (Excluded are bond funded projects, legal obligations and other exceptions). In addition, The California State University has been directed to defer further encumbrances for minor capital outlay projects funded from tidelands oil revenues.

The California State University hereby establishes a freeze of those projects covered by the Governor's order. This order is effective immediately. Administration of and responsibility for implementation of this expenditure freeze by each campus, consistent with management memos which will be issued by the State Department of Finance, is hereby delegated to each campus President.

Instructions on the procedural handling of the administration of this capital outlay freeze will be forthcoming.

EXECUTIVE ORDER D-3-83

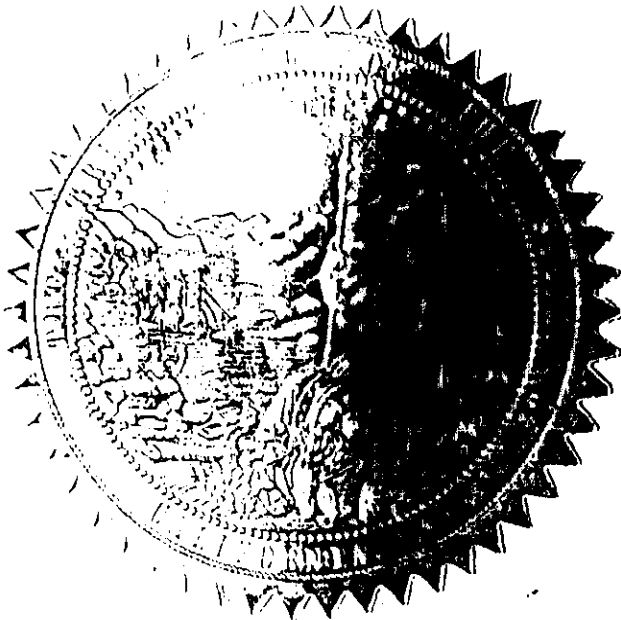

WHEREAS, the State of California has experienced a decline in revenue which has not been compensated for in commensurate expenditure reductions; and

WHEREAS, the State General Fund is experiencing substantial borrowing to meet cash obligations for the second consecutive fiscal year;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and Statutes of the State of California, including Government Code Section 13322, do hereby issue this order to become effective immediately.

- A. The Public Works Board is directed to defer processing requests for capital outlay projects. Exceptions to this order are:
1. Projects funded from bond funds and other constitutionally exempt funds.
  2. Projects for which the State is legally obligated to proceed.
  3. Projects determined by the Department of Finance to be essential to the health and safety of the people of the State of California or projects whose deferral would not be in the best interest of the State.
- B. All State agencies, the California State University, the University of California and the California Community Colleges are directed to defer further encumbrances for Minor Capital Outlay and Local Assistance items funded from tidelands oil revenues. Exceptions to this order are:
1. Projects for which the State is legally obligated to proceed.
  2. Projects determined by the Department of Finance to be essential to the health and safety of the people of the State of California or projects whose deferral would not be in the best interest of the State.

C. The Department of Finance is hereby directed to coordinate the administrative actions necessary to implement this Executive Order and to take any action within its statutory authority to ensure its appropriate implementation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of January 1983

George Deukmejian
Governor of California
