

HISPANICS AT THE CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY

The California State University is the university of choice for Hispanics. The CSU system is the largest system in the country, with 23 campuses and seven off-campus centers. Today, 23.8 percent of CSU students are Hispanic, 14 percent of the CSU staff is Hispanic, 8.2 percent of the CSU full-time faculty is Hispanic and 17 CSU campuses are listed in Hispanic Outlook in Higher Education's annual "Top 100."

Each CSU campus has its own identity, with distinct student populations and programs. Yet all share the same mission—to provide high-quality, affordable higher education to meet the changing workforce needs of the people of California.

The CSU plays a critical role in preparing outstanding candidates for the job market. With 91,000 annual graduates, the CSU is the state's greatest producer of bachelor's degrees and drives California's economy in information technology, life sciences, agriculture, business, education, international trade, public administration, entertainment and multimedia industries.

CSU Campuses in Hispanic Outlook in Higher Education's "Top 100"

Seventeen of the CSU's 23 campuses are among Hispanic Outlook in Higher Education's annual "Top 100," a national list of colleges and universities that conferred the most bachelor's degrees on Hispanics.

Hispanic-Serving Institutions—

- Twelve CSU campuses have attained Hispanic-Serving Institution status, defined as an institution that has at least 25 percent Hispanic full-time equivalent (FTE) enrollment: Bakersfield, Channel Islands, Dominguez Hills, Fresno, Fullerton, Long Beach, Los Angeles, Monterey Bay, Northridge, Pomona, San Bernardino and Stanislaus.

Hispanic Leaders at the CSU—

- Two Trustees of the California State University are Latinos: Melinda Guzman, a partner of the law firm of Goldsberry Freeman Guzman & Ditora, LLP; and Henry Mendoza, managing partner of Mendoza, Berger & Company and past chair of the California Hispanic Chamber of Commerce.
- Four CSU campus presidents are Hispanic: Dr. Ruben Armiñana, Sonoma State University; Dr. Mildred García, California State University, Dominguez Hills and the CSU's first Latina president; Dr. Alexander Gonzalez, California State University, Sacramento; and Dr. J. Michael Ortiz, California State Polytechnic University, Pomona.
