Essay Question 2

How would this research contribute to greater good? Describe the research questions that would drive this research. What are the historical and theoretical perspectives of this research topic? Describe how this may fill a gap in the literature.