Housing

There are approximately 2,400 residents living on campus with University Housing Services. Approximately 1,400 students live in the residence halls and 1,000 live in the Residential Suites.

The University offers six Residence Halls where students can participate in theme-based communities including First Year, college-based, service learning, Social Justice, and Academic Success-based themes.

Students from outside of the local service area are required to apply for University Housing during their first year. Only admitted students can complete a housing application.

University Housing Services actively supports CPP’s Climate Commitment through:

- Modifying Purchasing Practices
- Reducing in paper consumption
- Marketing activities
- Business Processes
- Recycling
- Partnering with the John T. Lyles Center for Regenerative Studies.
NCAA Division II Athletics Programs:

Men: Baseball, Basketball, Cross Country, Soccer, Track & Field
Women: Basketball, Cross Country, Soccer, Track & Field, Volleyball

The Broncos have captured 14 national team titles, more than any other current Division II institution in the State of California: 5 for women’s basketball, 3 for baseball, 1 for men’s basketball, and 1 for cross country.

More information about Bronco Athletics, including information on how to be recruited for a team, cheer squad, the Broncettes dance team, or the student fan club also known as “The Herd,” is available at broncoathletics.com
