Financial Aid / The CSU is Affordable (Session 1 and 2) LSU Ballroom C

This workshop is designed to provide a clear picture of Financial Aid and the process of applying and securing resources to afford an education in the CSU. This workshop will cover the following areas: what is the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), how do you apply for financial aid, who can apply for financial aid, what is the difference between a loan and a grant, how much does it cost to go to a CSU, and important dates and deadlines.

College Readiness – Begins with the Early Assessment Program (EAP) (Session 1 and 2) LSU Ballroom B

Come learn how you may benefit from taking the free EAP, make your EAP results count, skip the required CSU Placement Tests, and adjust your senior year to prepare for the CSU. It’s not too early to prepare for college readiness! Preparing early will help you avoid remediation courses at the CSU and participating California Community Colleges.

CSU Mentor: Planning Your Educational Future (Session 1 and 2) LSU Ballroom A

Exploring and using CSU Mentor provides students and parents with the necessary tools to properly prepare for higher education. Reviewing admissions requirements, how to utilize the college planner, financial aid resources, exploring the various CSU campuses, majors and more!

Educational Tools and Resources for Families (Session 1 and 2) WH A118

This workshop is designed to inspire middle and high school students to pursue their dreams through higher education and career opportunities, while encouraging parental/family engagement in education. Workshop attendees will learn about thousands of Internet resources available for students and families.
Cooking Up Careers! “CSU’s Hospitality Management Degree Program
(Session 1 and 2)          WH A139

Are you passionate about food, events or travel? Come and learn about careers and college degrees in one of California’s largest and fastest growing industries – hospitality management. Attendees will leave with information on degree options, CSU campuses and unique financial aid opportunities for hospitality management students. This session will feature a fun, interactive cooking demonstration and samples.

Parent Training and Empowerment
(Session 1 and 2)          WH D165

In these challenging economic times and decreased access to higher education, parent engagement as partners is critical for their children’s success! This workshop will demonstrate and show parents how they can use the CollegeEd Program Parent training materials to help their children succeed in K-12 and beyond.

African American and Latino Males in Higher Ed
(Session 1 and 2)          WH D176

Panelist of African American and Hispanic professionals from academic, corporate and nonprofit fields will share how African American and Hispanic males can succeed and navigate a higher education despite the risks and challenges. This is a must-attend workshop for parents of male students.
