Discussion Items

2. Proposed Schedule of Board of Trustees’ Meetings, 2005, Information
Chair Vitti called the meeting to order at 3:45 p.m.

Approval of Minutes

Chair Vitti presented the minutes of the May 13, 2003 meeting. Trustee Kaiser called for a correction in the minutes, noting that Trustee Goldwhite had been listed as both Chair and Vice Chair in the minutes. Chair Vitti stated that the error had already been brought to staff’s attention and that the correction would be made. The minutes were approved by consent as corrected.

Revision of Trustees’ Rules of Procedure
Chair Vitti asked General Counsel Christine Helwick to present Agenda Item 1, Revision of Trustees’ Rules of Procedure, an information item. Chancellor Charles Reed stated that he had worked with the General Counsel to develop the new rules, adding that he was concerned that CSU’s board, though not a for-profit board, follow the guidelines of Sarbanes-Oxley. The Chancellor stated that the Rules of Procedures had been written in 1961 and had not been wholly updated since that time. He reported that the proposed Rules have been completely rewritten and were not presented in a “strike-out and add” format. He asked Trustees to compare the proposed text to the current Rules of Procedure page by page. He noted that the item would come back to the committee at the March meeting for approval. General Counsel Helwick also stressed that that the item was a complete rewrite of the Rules of Procedure that govern the operation of CSU’s Board. The impetus for this revision, she stated, is the heightened emphasis on roles and responsibilities of governing boards in the United States in a post-Enron world. While none of the new legislation that has been passed in response to the Enron situation is specifically applicable to the CSU, she continued, it was decided best to take a fresh look at how the Board operates and make certain that CSU is in conformity with best governance practice. Ms. Helwick noted that many of the revisions contained in the proposed new Rules conform to the formal description of what the Board does and what is already current practice. For example, she said, the proposed new rules contain an augmented description of the function of the audit committee that is consistent with the current function of that committee; the Rules also make express for the first time what is already CSU practice that at least one member of the audit committee have accounting or financial management experience. Ms. Helwick pointed out that under the new Rules there was a uniform two-day advance notice requirement given to those who wish to address the Board or committee instead of current different time requirements. Also, the new Rules incorporate the Trustees Code of Conduct, enacted by the Board of Trustees in 1988 but never formally included in the Rules of Procedure. Ms. Helwick directed Trustee attention to the updated version of the proposed Rules in their packet of materials, noting there was one slight change from materials mailed to the Board in advance of the meeting. The change, she reported, contained in Article I, paragraph 4, expresses the Chancellor’s role as chief executive officer. She asked that Trustees feel free to raise any comments or questions they might have at any point as they compare the old and new Rules. She stated that the item would be brought back to the Board for action in March. Finally, Ms. Helwick noted that, if the new Rules are adopted at the March meeting, that action will necessitate some adjustment in both the Standing Orders and Title 5. Thus, Trustees should expect some further amendments to come before the committee in upcoming meetings. She called for comments or questions.

Adjournment

Since there was no further discussion, the meeting was adjourned at 3:52 p.m.
COMMITTEE ON ORGANIZATION & RULES

Revision of Trustees’ Rules of Procedure

Presentation By

Christine Helwick
General Counsel

Summary

This item is a rewrite of the Trustees’ Rules of Procedure, which was first introduced for information and discussion at the January meeting. The Rules have not undergone a major revision since initial introduction over 40 years ago, and many portions have become obsolete and/or inconsistent with current practice. This updated version includes new language that sets out the current obligations of heightened responsibility applicable to every governing Board, since the Enron demise, which are consistent with current Trustee practice. It also is an effort to communicate the Board’s procedures in plain English that the public can easily read and understand.

When adopted, these new Rules will also necessitate updates of the Standing Orders and portions of Title 5, which will be presented at subsequent meetings.

RESOLVED by the Board of Trustees of the California State University that the Rules Governing the Board of Trustees of the California State University in Agenda Item 1 of the March 17-18, 2004 meeting of the Committee on Organization and Rules are adopted.

Members of standing committees are determined by the Board of Trustees and hold office until the appointment of successors. The Committee on Committees determines committee assignments for newly appointed Trustees.

§ 2. Committee on Committees

The Committee on Committees nominates the Chair and Vice Chair, all members of the standing committees, and two representatives to the California Postsecondary Education Commission.

At a regular meeting in or about January, the Chair nominates five members of the Board of Trustees to the Committee on Committees. These nominations are acted upon at the next regular meeting. Any Trustee can make other nominations at any time prior to the election. The five nominees who receive the highest number of votes constitute the Committee on Committees. They take office at the end of the meeting at which they have been elected.

Within ten calendar days of the election of a new Committee on Committees, each Trustee submits to the Trustees’ Secretariat a list in rank order of at least four standing committees on which the Trustee would prefer to serve and any preference for service as a Trustee representative to the California Postsecondary Education Commission. The lists are sent to each member of the Committee on Committees, which shall give due consideration to the preferences listed in determining its nominations.

The Committee on Committees may nominate ex officio members of the Board of Trustees to serve as members of standing committees.

§ 3. Special Committees

The President and the Chair shall be ex officio members of all standing and special committees and the Committee on Committees. The Chancellor shall be an ex officio member of all standing and special committees, except for the Committee on Audit and the Committee on Committees.

A substitute appointment applies only to that particular meeting and expires upon adjournment of the committee meeting.

In the case of any joint meeting of two or more committees, a quorum consists of the majority of the members of each committee, and each member is counted just once. Each member has one vote, even though he or she is a member of more than one committee.

An agenda item brought before any committee for information or action remains under the jurisdiction of that committee unless the Chair of the committee or the Chair of the Board has been given notice and has approved the transfer of the agenda item to another committee or committees.

Any Trustee has the right to attend a closed session of any committee except for the Committee on Collective Bargaining.

§ 5. Members of the Public Addressing Committees

Every committee provides an opportunity for members of the public to directly address the committee on each agenda item before or during the committee’s discussion or consideration of the item, in accord with Government Code section 11125.7. Individuals wishing to appear before a committee must provide written notice to the Trustees’ Secretariat two working days preceding the regularly scheduled committee meeting, stating the subject and reason for the appearance. The Chair of the committee determines and announces any reasonable restrictions upon such presentations, including the total amount of time allocated for public comment on particular issues and/or for each speaker. If a member of the Board disagrees with the Chair’s restrictions, that Trustee may introduce a motion to reverse or amend the Chair’s decision.

In the event of a vacancy in either position, the Chair makes an interim appointment that remains in effect until further action by the Committee on Committees.

VI. AMENDMENTS

These Rules may be amended at any regular meeting of the Board of Trustees. Notice and a draft of the proposed amendment is required at the last regular meeting prior to the meeting at which action is taken. This advance notice requirement may be waived by a majority vote for matters that are not controversial and require no further discussion.
TRUSTEES’ CODE OF CONDUCT

1. A Trustee shall devote time, thought, and study to his or her duties as a member of the Board of Trustees of the California State University.

2. A Trustee shall learn how the California State University functions --- its uniqueness, strength, and needs --- and its place in postsecondary education.

3. A Trustee shall carefully prepare for, regularly attend, and actively participate in the Board meetings and committee assignments.

4. A Trustee shall accept and abide by the legal and fiscal responsibilities of the Board as specified in federal and state law and the regulations, rules of procedure, standing orders, and resolutions of the Board of Trustees.

5. A Trustee shall base his or her vote upon all information available in each situation and shall exercise his or her best judgment in making decisions which affect the course of the California State University.

6. A Trustee shall vote according to his or her individual conviction, and may challenge the judgment of others when necessary; yet a Trustee shall be willing to support the majority decision of the Board and work with fellow Board members in a spirit of cooperation.

7. A Trustee shall maintain the confidential nature of Board deliberations in closed session. This includes written and verbal communication concerning the closed session. A Trustee shall avoid acting as spokesperson for the Board unless specifically authorized to do so.
8. A Trustee shall understand the role of the Board as a policy making body and avoid participation in administration of that policy unless specifically authorized to do so by the Board.

10. A Trustee shall comply with conflict of interest policies and requirements prescribed in state law. A Trustee shall refrain from accepting duties, incurring obligations, accepting gifts or favors, engaging in private business or professional activities when there is, or would appear to be, a conflict or incompatibility between the Trustee’s private interests and the interests of the California State University.

11. A Trustee shall refrain from actions and involvements that may prove embarrassing to the California State University.

12. A Trustee shall act and make judgments always on the basis of what is best for the California State University as a whole and for the advancement of higher education in general.

Procedure for Responding to Breaches of the Code of Conduct

1. Should evidence or allegations of violations of the Code of Conduct by a Trustee of the California State University come to the attention of the Chair of the Board, which after further review by the Chair appears to constitute a breach of the Code of Conduct, the Chair and the Vice Chair shall discuss the matter with the Trustee to obtain additional facts and perspective and to seek a mutually agreeable resolution.
2. Should the Code continue to be violated by the Trustee after discussion with the Chair and the Vice Chair, the Chair, after appropriate consultation, will place the matter on the agenda for appropriate action by the Board of Trustees. The Board shall discuss the matter in open session, allowing the Trustee whose conduct is at issue to provide an explanation of the conduct. The Board may then by majority vote censure the Trustee.

3. Should the Board censure the Trustee, formal notification of the censure shall be communicated to the Governor, as President of the Board, and to any separate recommendatory or appointive authority of the Trustee, e.g., the Academic Senate of the California State University, the California State Student Association, or the CSU Alumni Council.
