Revision of Title 5, California Code of Regulations, Section 42920, Holidays

Background

Veterans Day is a designated paid holiday for California State University (CSU) employees. Prior to this past legislative session, Veterans Day could be rescheduled to another day consistent with the needs of the campus or systemwide office. However, this past legislative session, Assembly Bill (AB) 720 added section 89005.7 to the Education Code which requires the CSU to observe the Veterans Day holiday on November 11 and to close the university on that day. This law, effective January 2006, removed the CSU’s authority to reschedule this holiday to another day during the year consistent with the needs of the campus or the Chancellor’s Office. (When November 11 falls on a Saturday, the CSU observes the preceding Friday as the holiday and when it falls on a Sunday, the CSU observes the following Monday as the holiday.) To incorporate the requirements of this new law, Section 42920, Article 4.1, Subchapter 7, Chapter 1, Division 5 of Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations needs to be amended.

Since changing the CSU schedule of holidays requires an amendment to Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations, this item has been noticed for a public hearing as required by law.

For information, in accordance with HEERA, the CSU advised the exclusive representatives of its collective bargaining unions of the university’s requirement to designate Veterans Day as a holiday that cannot be rescheduled. Likewise, the CSU advised nonrepresented employees of the change by a policy memorandum.

Recommended Action

The following resolution is recommended for adoption:

RESOLVED, By the Board of Trustees of The California State University acting under the authority of Sections 87300 and 87306 of the Government Code and Section 89030.1 of the Education Code, that the Board hereby amends the California State University schedule of holidays in Section 42920 of Article 4.1,
Subchapter 7, Chapter 1, Division 5 of Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations as follows:

3. Last Monday in May (Memorial Day)
4. September 9 (Admission Day)
5. Second Monday in October (Columbus Day)
6. November 11 (Veterans Day)
7. Personal holiday, to be designated by each employee. The employee may be required to supply reasonable advance notice of intent to take the personal holiday.

(c) Any holiday which falls on a Saturday shall be observed on the preceding Friday and any holiday which falls on a Sunday shall be observed on the following Monday.

(d) On days when the campuses or systemwide office are observing holidays, particular employees may be required to work to perform necessary services.

And, be it further

RESOLVED, That the California State University has determined that the amendment of the regulation will not impose a cost or savings on any state agency; will not impose a cost or savings on any local agency or school district that is required to be reimbursed under Section 17561 of the Government Code; will not result in any costs or savings in federal funding to the State; and will not impose a mandate on local agencies or school districts; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees delegates to the Chancellor of The California State University authority to further adopt, amend, or repeal this regulation pursuant to Education Code Section 89030.1 if the further adoption, amendment, or repeal is required and is nonsubstantial or solely grammatical in nature, or sufficiently related to the original text that the public was adequately placed on notice that the change could result from the originally proposed regulatory action.
