Please note the 2001 exclusion rates for qualified transportation fringe benefits are as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Qualified Transportation Fringe Benefit</th>
<th>2000 Rate</th>
<th>2001 Rate</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Transportation in a commuter highway vehicle</td>
<td>$65/month</td>
<td>$65/month</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Transit passes</td>
<td>$65/month</td>
<td>$65/month</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Qualified parking (Employer-provided parking)</td>
<td>$175/month</td>
<td>$180/month</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Amounts exceeding these exclusion rates are taxable, reportable income.

As a reminder, qualified transportation fringe benefits are excluded from gross income. A qualified transportation fringe benefit means any of the following provided by an employer to an employee:

a. Transportation in a “commuter highway vehicle” if such transportation is in connection with travel between the employee’s residence and place of employment.

Distribution:
CSU Presidents
Vice Chancellor, Human Resources
Vice Presidents, Administration
Director, SOSS
Payroll Managers
Benefits Officers
Accounting Officers
A commuter highway vehicle is a vehicle with seating capability of at least six adults, not including the driver. There must be a reasonable expectation that at least 80 percent of the mileage vehicle use is for transporting employees between their residences and places of employment, using at least one-half of the adult seating capacity of the vehicle, not including the driver.

Please note that personal use of a commuter highway vehicle is reportable as taxable income.

b. Any transit pass

A transit pass includes any pass, token, farecard, voucher or similar item entitling a person to transportation, or transportation at a reduced price, on mass transit or in certain vehicles for hire.

c. Qualified parking

Qualified parking is parking provided to an employee on or near the business premises of the employer or on or near a location from which the employee commutes to work by mass transit, in a commuter highway vehicles or by carpool.

CSU transportation program incentives such as prizes, gift certificates, gifts or merchandise earned through point accumulation programs, and script which may be used to purchase merchandise at discounted prices are taxable fringe benefits.
