Executive Order: 901
Effective Date: April 13, 2004
Supersedes: No Prior Executive Order

Title: Department of Curriculum and Instruction Continuing Education, Graduate Cohort Program Fees, and Miscellaneous Course Fees for Anthropology Section 101A and Education and Human Development Section 110D; California State University, Fresno

This executive order is issued under the authority granted by Education Code Sections 89035, 89708, and 89700, Standing Orders of the Board of Trustees, Chapter III, Sections 1, 2 and 6-f-1, and Board of Trustees’ Resolution RFIN 03-04-00, and consonant with Executive Order Number 740.

Effective April 13, 2004, California State University, Fresno is authorized to establish Category III, Department of Curriculum and Instruction Continuing Education, Graduate Cohort Program Fees, and Miscellaneous Course Fees for Anthropology Section 101A and Education and Human Development Section 110D. The Department of Curriculum and Instruction Continuing Education, Graduate Cohort Program Fees are established at a fee rate of $185 per unit and will cover the full cost of instruction for the extended education courses taken by students enrolled in the Masters of Education Program--Curriculum and Instruction in Visalia. The Miscellaneous Course Fee for Anthropology Section 101A is established at a fee rate of $75 and will cover costs that include the use of a dig site, tools, and portable toilet rental. The Miscellaneous Course Fee for Education and Human Development Section 110D is established at a fee rate of $7 and will cover the cost of supplies and materials.

In accordance with Education Code Sections 89704 and 89721(i), revenue collected from extended education fees may be deposited either in the State University Continuing Education Revenue Fund in the State Treasury or in a local trust account. Revenue collected from miscellaneous course fees is to be deposited either in the General Fund or in a local trust account, depending on the nature of the fee. In accordance with Education Code Section 89721(g), revenue collected may be deposited in a local trust account where the fee is required of those persons who, at their option, use the services or facilities, or are provided the materials, for which the fee is collected. In other words, if the student has the option to procure the service or materials for which the fee is charged on the open market or some other way separate from the university and still fulfill the requirements of the university, the revenue may be deposited in trust. Revenue so deposited shall be used solely to meet the costs of providing these services, materials, and facilities.
Otherwise, in accordance with Section 89724(a) of the Education Code, revenue collected from miscellaneous course fees shall be deposited in the State Treasury and credited to the General Fund for the support of the university in addition to such other amounts as may be appropriated therefor by the Legislature.
