

ATTENDING A CSU BOARD OF TRUSTEES MEETING
AT THE CHANCELLOR'S OFFICE

Trustee and CSU Leadership Seating in the Dumke Auditorium

- Campus representatives or guests assisting with a board presentation should access the Dumke Auditorium through the glass doors immediately adjacent to the central staircase in the Chancellor's Office lobby. There, they will be escorted to seating areas located behind the Trustees for availability as needed during the meeting.
- Campus staff or guests who are attending, but not assisting with a board presentation, must enter through the public entrance to the Dumke Auditorium.

Public Seating Gallery in the Dumke Auditorium

- Members of the public wishing to address the board during the public comment portion of the meeting must provide written or electronic notice to the Trustee Secretariat no later than the working day before the board meeting by following the information outlined in section 3.8 in the Rules Governing the Board of Trustees. Members of the public will be directed by security to the Dumke Public Seating Gallery.
- Media representatives must have current and valid media credentials and must check in at the security desk. (Exceptions may be made for student media representatives.) Media will be directed to the press section for seating.
- If the Dumke Public Seating Gallery reaches capacity, the public can view the public meeting via streaming services provided by the Chancellor's Office at <https://www2.calstate.edu/csu-system/board-of-trustees>.
