Establishing a Biennial Symposium Recognizing African American History and Achievement and Promoting Anti-Racism Work (REP 03-21-02)

WHEREAS, African American students, faculty, staff and alumni have made and continue to make vast, meaningful and lasting contributions to the California State University (CSU) and the state of California; and

WHEREAS, African Americans suffered enslavement and subsequently continue to face injustices and denial of many of the basic and fundamental rights of humanity and citizenship, reflecting a unique history of the United States with regard to race and racism; and

WHEREAS, the vestiges of those injustices and inequities remain evident in our society today, including within our institutions of higher education; and

WHEREAS, African American youth and young adults continue to experience disproportionately greater inequities in college preparation, educational access and attainment, which highlights gaps that educators are responsible to redress, as evidenced in a recent report by the Campaign for College Opportunity, The State of Higher Education for Black Californians; and

WHEREAS, the CSU enrolled 485,550 students across its 23 campuses in Fall 2020 and awards nearly half of the state's bachelor's degrees annually; one in 10 employees in California is a CSU graduate; and there are over 3.8 million living alumni; and

WHEREAS, the CSU enrolled 19,645 (4%) students who identify as African American across its 23 campuses in Fall 2020, which represents approximately nine percent of all Black undergraduates in California, and the gap in four-year graduation rates between Black students and white students at the CSU has increased over the past decade from 21 to over 25 percentage points; and

WHEREAS, Juneteenth marks the moment on June 19, 1865, when Major General Gordon Granger arrived in Galveston, Texas, and announced the end of both the Civil War and slavery, and as such, Juneteenth is recognized as a consequential day of reflection and is commemorated in communities across our state and nation; and

WHEREAS, Black History Month, first proposed by scholar Carter G. Woodson in 1926, seeks to recognize, study and celebrate – at all times and especially during the month of February – the heritage, contributions and achievements of African Americans; and

WHEREAS, multiple other holidays and commemorations recognize and honor the culture, contributions, sacrifices, achievements and legacies of Black, Indigenous and People of Color (BIPOC), including Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, Kwanzaa, Malcolm X Day, César Chávez Day, Latinx Heritage Month, Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Month, Indigenous Peoples' Day and among others, and are celebrated on campuses across the CSU; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Trustees encourages all students, faculty, staff and administrators to continue to participate in campus activities throughout the CSU that highlight the important contributions BIPOC have made to our communities, state and nation; that acknowledge and recognize the ways in which anti-Black racism and other institutionalized forms of white supremacy continue to manifest across United States society, including in our own histories and legacies as institutions of higher education; and that foster opportunities for individual and collaborative work to promote transformative change that leads to equity and inclusion; and

WHEREAS, the CSU is steadfast in its commitment at all times to advance diversity, equity and inclusion; to promote cultural awareness, cross-cultural exchange, decolonization and acknowledgment of African American history; and to engage people from all walks of life in dialogue that moves our University and the communities our campuses serve toward a more socially just society, by engaging in actions that move beyond our words; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, by the Board of Trustees, that the California State University celebrate Black History Month, commemorate the significance of Juneteenth and draw inspiration from the many contributions to our society made by African Americans, as well as strive for transformative change that promotes social justice and closes educational equity gaps, by holding a biennial symposium in co-sponsorship with a CSU campus – commencing in calendar year 2022 and occurring every other year thereafter; and be it further

RESOLVED, by the Board of Trustees, that the Chancellor will appoint a standing work group comprised of Chancellor’s Office and campus-based representatives to include students, alumni, faculty, staff and administrators in order to develop and implement each biennial symposium, where each symposium will be designed to highlight African- American history and achievement; foster authentic intercultural dialogue; advance anti-racism efforts in a sustainable manner; and reinforce an unwavering commitment to build inclusive and diverse campus communities that empower students with the ability to pursue lives of curiosity, prosperity and self-fulfillment.
