

ACADEMIC SENATE OF
THE CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY

AS-3434-20/CSUSB Delegation
May 7-8, 2020

COMMENDATION IN HONOR OF JODIE ULLMAN
CSU STATEWIDE SENATOR

- WHEREAS, Senator Jodie Ullman culminated her graduate education with a Ph.D. from the University of California, Los Angeles, where she taught Psychology Analysis of Variances and methods; and
- WHEREAS, Senator Ullman, received her B.A. in Music from the University of California, Los Angeles, and taught K-12 music before returning to CSU Northridge and UCLA to earn degrees in Psychology; and
- WHEREAS, Senator Ullman started teaching at California State University, San Bernardino as she finished her PhD. in Psychometrics and Measures; and
- WHEREAS, Senator Ullman has consistently and actively been a leader in shared governance at San Bernardino as a Faculty Senator since 2001, a Faculty Senate Chair, the longest-serving member of the Faculty Senate Executive Committee, and other committees too numerous to mention; and
- WHEREAS, Senator Ullman has served the CSU as a member of the Statewide Academic Senate since 2011 and as the senior senator from San Bernardino since 2013; as a Member-at-Large of the Executive Committee of the ASCSU; as member, vice chair, and chair of the Academic Affairs Committee; Co-Chair of the General Education Task Force; a member of the Institute for Teaching and Learning (ITL) Board; Joint Graduate Board (CSU/UC); as well as other committees too numerous to mention; and
- WHEREAS, Senator Ullman has, more importantly, been a friend, colleague and sounding board to all members, especially mentoring on how to be active in the ASCSU and how to grow diverse leaders in the CSU; and
- WHEREAS, Senator Ullman, even with all of the above responsibilities, has continuously published books like Structural Equation Modeling Handbook of Psychology and close to forty articles in refereed journals, such as British Journal of Clinical Psychology and Journal of Personality Assessment; and

WHEREAS, Senator Ullman determined her beloved convertible could not swim and was not, in fact, an amphibious vehicle while attending a Statewide Academic Senate meeting, but got it home somehow; finally therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate of the CSU commend and thank the diligent and tireless Senator Jodie Ullman on her commitment to service in this Academic Senate; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate of the CSU offer its best wishes to Senator Ullman on the APA Council of Representatives, the Advisory Committee to the APA Leadership Institute for Women, scaring bears away from her beautiful home in Sierra Madre, and all her other future endeavors.

Approved by Acclamation – May 7-8, 2020