

CSU PRE-Professor Program (PREPP) – CDIP PREPP

Program Description

The PRE-Professor Program (PREPP) is designed to support CDIP Fellows's transition to faculty positions by engaging them in a semester-long program at a California State University (CSU) campus. The goal of PREPP is to immerse participants in the life of a faculty member at a comprehensive master's granting institution. Another overarching goal is to increase the pipeline of highly competitive individuals from diverse backgrounds who apply for faculty positions to increase the diversity at CSU campuses. Thus, applicants from underrepresented groups and those who are champions of diversity are encouraged to apply. In addition, PREPP Fellows will have individual mentorship from an experienced CSULB Faculty Mentor in three broad categories: Instruction, Understanding the Campus Culture, and Service.
