

Title 5, California Code of Regulations
Division 5 -- Board of Trustees of the California State Universities
Chapter 1 -- California State University
Subchapter 5 – Administration
Article 4 – Nonresident Tuition

§ 41908 – Appeals

Any student, following a final campus decision concerning the student's residence classification, may make written appeal to the designated office ~~General Counsel~~ in the Chancellor's Office within 30 ~~420~~ calendar days of the issuance of the notification of the final campus decision. A student may appeal a campus nonresident determination only if at least one of the following applies:

1. The decision was based on:

- a. a significant error of fact;
- b. a significant procedural error; or,
- c. an incorrect application of law which, if corrected, would require that the student be reclassified as a resident; and/or,

2. Significant new information, not previously known or available to the student, became available after the date of the campus decision classifying the student as a nonresident and based on the new information, the classification as a nonresident is incorrect.

The Chancellor's Office ~~General Counsel~~ may decide the issue, or ~~it may~~ send the matter back to the institution with instructions for a further review.
