Public Comment

The board heard from the following individuals: Lillian Taiz, president, CFA, stated that this was a day of new beginnings and time for a fresh start. She noted that although at times the CFA and the administration would find themselves on different sides of an issue, that where the two shared values they could work together to overcome difficult circumstances. She noted that although the governor has restored some needed funding to the CSU, hard work still needed to be done by all constituencies to protect this investment; Pat Gantt, president, CSUEU welcomed the chancellor to the CSU. He also spoke about the governor's budget and hoped that he would find more money for the CSU for compensation as he was able to do for other state workers. He asked everyone to continue to work together to get the CSU story to the public and the legislature; Tessy Reese, chair bargaining unit 12, CSUEU spoke about the continued need for mental health and noted and that more needs to be done to address the needs of staff who are the first to address the issues facing troubled students; Rich McGee, chair, bargaining unit 9, CSUEU, spoke about contracting out and stated that the CSU should turn to its highly trained workforce to complete the jobs instead of contracting out that often results in wasted resources; John Orr, chair bargaining unit 7, CSUEU, spoke about the need for increased education about workforce bullying. He noted that often bullies are unaware that their behavior is causing others so many problems or even that their behavior is bullying; Rich Anderson, president UAW Local 4123, spoke about the need for financial aid for graduate students. He asked that the chancellor and the trustees go to the legislature to ask them to preserve the services that have been slashed from the CSU since the budget collapse.

Benjamin F. Quillian
Executive Vice Chancellor and
Chief Financial Officer

Summary

The California State University Office of the Chancellor facility has been financed and operated through a joint powers agreement (JPA) with the city of Long Beach since 1976. The JPA established the California State University Headquarters Building Authority to ensure provisions of the agreement are carried forward. The trustees appoint two members to the Authority, the city appoints two members, and those four members jointly appoint a fifth member. An appointment is needed for the term which expired on November 30, 2012. The proposed resolution seeks to re-appoint the trustee representative, Ms. Lenore Rozner, for the four-year term of November 30, 2012 through November 30, 2016. The position is uncompensated and must be held by a California elector.

Ms. Lenore Rozner, former assistant vice chancellor, Business Planning and Information Management, at the CSU Office of the Chancellor, is recommended to serve as the trustees representative to the Authority. Ms. Rozner combines knowledge, experience and allegiance to both the CSU and to the City of Long Beach, where she has been involved in community service throughout her life-time residence.

RESOLVED, By the Board of Trustees of the California State University, that Ms. Lenore Rozner be re-appointed a commissioner of the CSU Headquarters Building Authority to the four-year term of November 30, 2012 through November 30, 2016.
