STUDENT ESSAY

- (1) In your own words - explain the significance of the overall research program led by your faculty mentor.
- (2) Describe your individual contribution to the project. Reviewers will assess whether your contribution to the work presented or collected is significant based on what you write here! Try estimating what percent of the total project work you did or will do and justify your estimate and explain how it was significant to the project overall.
- (3) Lastly, describe secondary benefits that will occur as a result of your planned travel. For example only: presenting research results and also attending a career planning workshop listed on the conference schedule, or collecting data and also learning a new technique.

FACULTY MENTOR'S RECOMMENDATION STATEMENT

Faculty statements should clearly describe the student's individual role and depth of involvement in the research project and his/her past experience presenting research results or collecting data off-campus. If the student is not the first author or largest contributor to the research presentation or data collection, mentors should explain why they are championing the application.

Administrative Note: CSUPERB grants are issued as a result of an internal competition within the CSU and are not subject to Facilities and Administrative (F&A), or indirect, costs. F&A costs are not allowed as a grant-funded expense in proposals submitted in response to RFPs from programs, like CSUPERB, that receive the majority of their support from legislatively appropriated funds, CSU lottery funds or student fees (including State University fees). The F&A foregone at the campus/auxiliary's federally negotiated off-campus rate may be shown as cost match on the proposal. This amount may be used by the auxiliary or enterprise fund as an offset to the university's cost allocation plan, in accordance with EO 753/1000.

BUDGET JUSTIFICATION

Explain why you need travel support. If the total for the expenses you itemized above is greater than the amount you are requesting, you must explain how you will finance the additional expenses that make travel feasible. Justify your request for lodging if you live within commuting distance of the meeting, workshop or facility/site.

Limit ½ page.
